

LET THERE BE BRIGHT THIS SUMMER AT THE CONRAN SHOP

17 March 2011: British Summer time is just weeks away and The Conran Shop is going gloriously bright and airy for the summer months with this year's outdoor living collection celebrating joyful optimistic colour. The new 200 piece range includes furniture, tableware and accessories with a focus on sharp 1960's inspired colours and contrasting naturals, neutrals and monochromes as a backdrop creating a sharp contemporary look.

Eleanor Davies, Buyer said, "We are celebrating this summer with splashes of strong colour. Much of the new range is exclusive to The Conran Shop – the classic director's chair has been recreated in black to add drama to the outdoor table working wonderfully with bright yellows, oranges, greens, turquoise and reds. Our accessory range which spans hand blown glass, unusual candles, handmade lanterns from India and planters saturated in glossy colour will add a cost effective but dramatic uplift - instantly personalizing, updating and brightening any scheme."
