BRITISH CERAMICIST ALICE GARLAND: NEW AT THE CONRAN SHOP

20 January 2011: New at the Conran Shop is a collection by British ceramicist, Alice Garland. Each piece is individually made from sheets of paper porcelain with porcelain folds visible to the eye and then hand painted before being built and fired with a gold lustre. Priced between £25.00 and £99.00, the red stripe mug design (bottom) is exclusive to The Conran Shop. An up and coming name in British ceramics, Alice Garland studied at Camberwell College of Art and after gaining an MA in ceramics in 2008, collaborated with a number of fashion designers including Russell Sage for his London Fashion Week collection featuring hundreds of hand painted tiles and for the collections of Natasha Stolle and Peter Jensen making porcelain jewellery and accessories. She has her own work shop in Suffolk and exhibits her work at selected galleries worldwide. How to buy: Visit the Conran Shop website: www.conranshop.co.uk.
